

NEWS RELEASE

Date: 14 December 2015

NEW APPOINTMENT AT PEA

Private Equity Administrators Limited (PEA) has appointed Marcus Allen, a former assistant manager at IPES, to take a leading managerial role and to further support its growing client relationship team. In his new role, Marcus will be responsible for the operational oversight of all fund administration processes in the Guernsey office as well as providing dedicated support to a key client relationship.

Speaking about his new appointment, Marcus said,

I am delighted to be joining PEA and am excited about the opportunities within this boutique service provider.

James Orrick, Managing Director of PEA commented,

Marcus brings with him over 13 years of solid hands on private equity fund administration experience and his appointment not only complements our existing team but will help us to continue to deliver outstanding service to our customers as we expand.
